

CURRICULUM VITAE

Allan Thayer Morton

EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy, May 1996
University of Cambridge, Cambridge, England

Master of Philosophy, June 1992
University of Cambridge, Cambridge, England

Bachelor of Arts, November 1988
York University, Toronto, Ontario

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Division Director, August 2006 to Present
Paciulli Simmons and Associates, Ltd., Fairfax, Virginia

Division Director, August 2005 to August 2006
Bluestone Research LLC, Virginia

Senior Policy Advisor, 2004 to August 2005
Government of Ontario

Environmental Advisor, 2002 to 2004
Ministry of Defence
Salisbury Plain Training Area and Stonehenge World Heritage Site, Wiltshire, England

Environmental -Assistant Manager, 2000 to 2001
Environmental Division, III Corps and Fort Hood, Texas

Chairman, Conservation Commission, 1997 to 2000
Georgina, Ontario

Assistant Professor, 1995 to 1997
Department of Anthropology, University of Waterloo, Ontario

Staff Manager, Researcher, 1989 to 1995
National Museum of Kenya and Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts

DISTINCTIONS

Discoverer of Hominid Type Specimen, Australopithecus anamensis, 1987
Allia Bay, Lake Turkana, Kenya.
National Museums of Kenya.

Boise Fund Award Recipient, 1993
Department of Biological Anthropology, University of Oxford, England.