Recognized by ESI Five Years in a Row for Quality Plan Production

At the Engineers and Surveyors Institute (ESI) annual meeting, Paciulli, Simmons & Associates was again recognized with two awards for Quality Plan Production. This marks the firm's fifth consecutive year being recognized by ESI for their quality plan production in Fairfax County, Loudoun County, or the Town of Leesburg.

This year, the firm was recognized for overall quality plan production for the Town of Leesburg and firm's Vice President, Joe Paciulli, was recognized for the second year in a row for quality designated plans examination in Loudoun County.

In addition to this year's awards, the firm and individuals Ann Germain, Ed Addicott and Jack Williams have been recognized over the past five years. Pete Rigby, Jr. who manages the firm's Fairfax office and serves on the ESI Board of Directors, acknowledged these accomplishments by adding - "This is our fifth year of recognition. There are not many firms that year in and year out continue to prove to the industry the importance we insist the quality of work maintain."
