

Joseph G. Paciulli Elected Chairman of the Loudoun County Economic Development Commission

At their January meeting, the Loudoun County Economic Development Commission (EDC) elected Joseph G. Paciulli, LS as their chairman for 2005. Established in 1995 by Loudoun County's Board of Supervisors, the EDC is a public/private partnership responsible for promoting Loudoun's economic development. The EDC serves as a forum through which business and government leaders meet to exchange ideas and experiences about business growth in the county. It is organized with twenty-seven voting members, featuring representatives from diverse industries such as: aerospace, agribusiness, banking & finance, higher education, manufacturing, professional services, real estate development, retail, small business and telecommunications.

Joseph Paciulli is Vice President of Paciulli, Simmons & Associates, managing the firm's Leesburg, Virginia office. As a very prominent business leader and resident of Loudoun County, Joe is currently serving on several local boards and committees, including the Loudoun County Zoning Ordinance Review Committee, the Loudoun County Affordable Dwelling Unit Advisory Board, and the Loudoun Chapter of the Northern Virginia Building Industry Association.
