Joe Paciulli Appointed to Zoning Ordinance Review Committee

Fairfax, Virginia — This past week, Joe Paciulli, L.S. was appointed by The Loudoun County Board of Supervisors to a newly formed, Zoning Ordinance Review Committee. This 11-member committee is largely made up of real estate industry experts that will oversee a review of the zoning laws that governs Loudoun County development, making recommendations for adjustments to county regulations to ease Ordinance difficulties.

The board received responses from 49 individuals who had offered to participate. Seven members were selected for their expertise in land use issues and two were selected as citizen representatives. The other two members will represent the Economic Development Commission and the Rural Economic Development Council.

Joe Paciulli is Vice President of Paciulli, Simmons & Associates, managing the firm's Leesburg, Virginia office. Joe is a very prominent business leader and resident of Loudoun County. He has been an active member of Northern Virginia Builders Industry Association (NVBIA) for over fifteen years and was recently appointed for an additional 4-year term as a member of the Loudoun County Affordable Dwelling Unit Advisory Board.

With offices in Fairfax and Leesburg, Virginia, PSA is a multi-discipline engineering firm specializing in civil engineering, land surveying, landscape architecture, land planning, and environmental and wetland services. PSA provides a wide array of services to government agencies, land developers, and educational institutions throughout the Mid- Atlantic Region. Established in 1744, Paciulli, Simmons and Associates has been recognized as the oldest firm in the Washington Metropolitan area.
