Fairfax, Virginia — Paciulli, Simmons & Associates, Ltd. proudly announces the selection of Tami Lenox, LS and Gary Flesher as associate partners in the firm. Both Lenox and Flesher are long-term employees who have contributed to the success and growth of the firm.

Tami A. Lenox, LS joined the firm in 1984 as a rodman on one of the firm's field crews. Since that time, she has held positions as instrument man, party chief, survey computer, and field coordinator. She currently is a Virginia Licensed Land Surveyor and serves as Chief of Surveys in the firm's Fairfax office where she is responsible for managing four survey crews, department day-to-day activities, and client relations. Her 20 years of experience spans from public sector work for local municipalities and state and Federal governments to private land development.

Gary G. Flesher has been the firm's Controller for 10 years. He is responsible for all accounting functions including financial reporting; taxes; financial, trend, and ratio analysis; employee benefit administration; and risk management. Gary also serves on the management team to council and advise on all aspects of business operations and planning.

With offices in Fairfax and Leesburg, Virginia, PSA is a multi-discipline engineering firm specializing in civil engineering, land surveying, landscape architecture, land planning, and environmental and wetland services. PSA provides a wide array of services to government agencies, land developers, and educational institutions throughout the Mid-Atlantic Region. Established in 1744, Paciulli, Simmons and Associates has been recognized as the oldest firm in the Washington Metropolitan area.
