

Pete Rigby Receives NVBIA 2003 Presidential Award

On Saturday evening, in front of over 600 attendees at the annual NVBIA President's Ball, Pete Rigby was presented with a 2003 Presidential Award. Pete received this award in special recognition for his commitment and contributions toward the achievement of the Association's goals. Over the past year, he has worked closely with both county staff and industry representatives in keeping the Fairfax Chapter Council apprised of important county issues.

Pete was also recently awarded the Associate of the Year award by the NVBIA Fairfax Chapter.

Pete has been an active member of the NVBIA Fairfax Chapter for over eight years. He is currently a Life Council Member and serves as chairman of the Office of Site Development.

Congratulations Pete!
