Fairfax, VA - Joseph G. Paciulli, President and Chief Executive Officer of Paciulli, Simmons & Associates, has been selected to serve on the Loudoun CEO Cabinet.

The Loudoun CEO Cabinet is an association of more than 40 executives who are corporate CEOs, Presidents and Chairmen of business, education and non-profit businesses in Loudoun County. The Cabinet offers Loudoun's CEOs a forum to exchange ideas, perform community outreach, offer strategic thinking for the future of Loudoun, and to support the Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce leadership in the business community.

Mr. Paciulli is a very prominent business leader and resident of Loudoun County who is committed to furthering excellence in engineering through his leadership and participation in numerous community and professional organizations. He is currently serving in his eighth year on the Loudoun County Economic Development Commission (EDC) advising the Loudoun County Board of Supervisors on economic development issues and opportunities. He served as EDC chairman for two of these eight years. Mr. Paciulli is also serving Loudoun County as the chairman of the Affordable Dwelling Unit Advisory Board, which helps administer the Loudoun County and Town of Leesburg Affordable Housing Ordinance. Mr. Paciulli is an active member of the Northern Virginia Building Industry Association (NVBIA), NAIOP Commercial Real Estate Development Association, Engineers Surveyor Institute (ESI), Virginia Association of Surveyors and the Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Paciulli has more than 33 years of comprehensive civil engineering and land surveying experience throughout the northern Virginia region working for public agencies and private sector companies including local and state government agencies and municipalities; and residential and commercial builders and developers.

Established in 1744, Paciulli, Simmons & Associates is a multi-disciplinary consulting engineering firm providing civil engineering, land surveying, land planning, environmental and wetland, and cultural resource services. The firm's project experience includes serving public agencies and private sector companies in design/build, mixed-use, residential, commercial, educational, state and local government, federal/military, parks and recreation, redevelopment/urban planning, and sustainable and green design facility projects. With multiple office locations and an accomplished staff of professionals, Paciulli, Simmons & Associates is able to offer our clients a unique combination of technical expertise, local knowledge and innovative solutions in everything we do in order to improve and sustain our built and natural environments.
